HUNGERFORD ROAD CONTRACT IS LET

Commissioners Select High Bidder,
Lawrence & Ennis, Preferring
Fit Gravel to Pumped Gravel

HUMPHRY PETITION HELD UP

Board Meets Again Tomorrow to Receive Bids on New Infirmary
—County Council Called

The county commissioners met in regular session this afternoon, the principal thing coming before them being the awarding of the contract for the Hungerford highway. The road is to be constructed of gravel, and is a mile in length, being on the line between the townships of Walker and Rushville.

For this highway there were two bidders and it was a case of the highest bidder getting the contract, Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington were the successful bidders, their price being $9,798, and Moore and Crise of Decatur county bid $8,990. The road has to be bridges in it, which are to be constructed of concrete, and this brought the bids up rather high.

The difference in the bids was due to the kind of gravel to be used, and the commissioners preferred to pay more for pit gravel than to use pumped gravel.

The county commissioners accepted the resignation today of County Clerk George B. Moore, Jr., but his successor was not named. It is likely that an appointment will be made in the next few days.

The petition of land owners living in Anderson and Richland townships, to vacate a road known as the Humphry road, was postponed until August 4. Several land owners objected to the closing of the road as it is the only way to reach their land, and the commissioners postponed the decision as bonds will have to be issued in order to pay the expenses.

The commissioners will meet again tomorrow to receive bids for the county poor farm building. The county council is also called for tomorrow for the purpose of approving a bond issue of $85,000 to pay the expense of building a new infirmary.

LOG ROLLING CONTEST TO BE HELD AUGUST 20

Local Modern Woodmen Lodge Will
Elect Ten Delegates Thursday
Night to Attend Meeting

$300 IN PRIZES OFFERED

The annual Log Rolling contest of the Indiana Modern Woodmen Log Rolling association, will be held at Shelbyville, August 20. The events of the day and evening, as outlined in the official program received by Clerk J. P. Stech, is as follows: 11 a. m. call to order by the president, Elmer Bassett; transaction of regular business and selection of next place to hold the annual affair. One o'clock in the afternoon will be given over to a band concert, followed by an address on Woodcraft by Charles E. Welan, national lecturer of Madison, Wis.

The remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to drill contests and many prizes will be awarded, $150 as first, $100 for second, $50 for third. Prizes will also be awarded in the amateur drill contest, which will be open for any forester in uniform. At night a class of 100 will be given the adoption degree, preceded by a parade of uniformed foresters.

The local order will meet Thursday night to select eleven delegates to go to Shelbyville.

RAIN FALLS IN THE COUNTRY

Heat Wave is Broken and Weather
Today is Comfortable

Fair weather with moderate temperature is predicted following the break in the heat wave Saturday night. The temperature dropped late Saturday and Sunday and today the weather was very comfortable. Although there was no rain in the immediate vicinity of Rushville, reports reaching this city said that there was a heavy downpour in the southeastern part of the county. The corn and grass crops are greatly in need of rain.

NONE TO BE REBUILT FOR PRESENT AT LEAST

No Plans Made For Replacing Buildings Destroyed by Fire at Falmouth Saturday

STORE IS DOING BUSINESS

Following the disastrous fire of last Saturday morning in Falmouth, when the I. O. O. F. hall, the Collyer store and residences of Quincy Rees and S. D. Davison burned down, the opinion today was that none of the buildings would be rebuilt for the present.

The Collyer store was removed to another location on the opposite side of the street, and Mr. Collyer had made no plans for a future building. The residences which were destroyed will not be rebuilt, it was definitely stated today. Mr. Rees is a farm laborer and Mr. Davison is a blacksmith.

The rebuilding of the Odd Fellows Hall will probably take place later, but nothing definitely has been decided upon, nor can plans be made until after the lodge has determined its loss, and a business meeting held. The insurance in any of the cases would not go very far towards rebuilding, especially with the high prices of building materials.

WASHINGTON BEGINS TO LIVEN UP TODAY

Congressmen Return After Fourth of July Vacation to Begin
Strenuous Summer Session.

PEACE SKIRMISHES ARE DUE

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—After a Fourth of July lull, Washington hoped to liven up today with the return of men to congress for resumption of work tomorrow and for making final preparations for President Wilson's arrival tomorrow night.

Congress is expected to plunge into what is expected to be one of the most strenuous summer sessions ever known.

In the house the wets and dries will clash over the strict prohibition legislation. In the senate the first half of the week will see skirmishes preliminary to the battle to begin Thursday following presentation of the peace treaty and league covenant by President Wilson.

WILSON SPEAKS THURSDAY

Washington, July 7.—President Wilson will address the senate on the peace treaty and the league of nations at 12:15 p. m. Thursday, it was announced today at the White House.

RICHMOND STORM CENTER

Richmond, Ind., July 7.—Richmond was the center of an unusual storm, late Saturday, that, apparently, confined itself to an area two or three miles square.

THRASHERS MUST CARRY INSURANCE

Farmers May be Held Liable For Accidents if Thrashermen Are Not Insured

NEWSOM MAKES STATEMENT

Employers Must Have Compensation Insurance But Farmers Are Exempt, With One Exception

That farmers will be liable for the damages in case a thrasher is injured and the owner of the thrashing outfit carries no compensation insurance, is the construction W. H. Newsom, president of the Bartholomew County Farmers association, places on amendments to the state compensation act passed by the last legislature.

Farmers are exempt from the compensation law, but this is a special case covered by an amendment, according to the letter written by Mr. Newsom to Lewis W. Taylor of Indianapolis, president of the Indiana State Federation of Farmers associations.

Several Rush county farmers noticed the story which was printed in the Indianapolis News and expect to make it a point to see that the thrashermen they employ carry compensation insurance.

The liability results, it is asserted, from amendments to the compensation law passed by the last state assembly, one provision of which says that "any person contracting for the performance of any work without exacting from the contractors a certificate from the industrial board showing that such contractor has complied with Section 68 of this act, shall be liable to the same extent as the contractor for compensation, physician's fees, hospital and nurse fees, burial expenses, on account of the injury or death of any employee of such contractor, due to an accident arising out of and in the course of the performance of the work covered by such contract."

Section 68, referred to, provides that "every employer under this act shall either insure or keep insured his liability hereunder in some corporation, association or organization authorized to transact the business of workmen's compensation insurance in this state or shall furnish to the industrial board satisfactory proof of his financial ability to pay direct the compensation in the amount and manner and when due as provided for in this act."

Mr. Newsom points out that this question is of great importance to farmers employing thrashermen to thrash their grain, as they might not think of the importance of seeing that such thrasher carry the proper insurance. During the last year it is estimated there has been one accident of more or less severity every twenty-five thrashing outfits employing men operating such machinery, and as there are approximately 6,000 thrashing outfits in the state, there likely will be from 200 to 350 accidents for which farmers will be liable to pay, unless they make sure the thrashermen carry insurance.

TWO OPERATIONS

Two operations were performed for removal of tonsils and adenoids, this morning, by Dr. Frank H. Green in his new hospital just opened over his office in East Second street. The patients were Virginia Gray, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Gray, living in Shelbyville, and Joel M. Harrold, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harrold of this city.

LONDON—A Cirencester penny, of the period William the Conqueror and King Stephen, was auctioned for $850 at Sotheby's.

TO START RETURN TRIP TOMORROW

R-34, Which Landed at Roosevelt
Field Sunday Morning, Prepares
For Homeward Journey

OVERHAULED AND REFUELED.

Dirigible Arrives on Own Power
Largely Through Luck Shift in Direction of Wind

(By United Press.)

Mineola, July 7.—The British Dirigible R-34 which completed its trans-Atlantic flight yesterday, will start on its return trip at eight o'clock tomorrow morning, if weather conditions are favorable. This announcement was made this afternoon by the Brigadier General Chatterton of the British air ministry at Washington, who added that the airship would probably precede its homeward flight by circling over New York City at a low altitude.

The return trip is expected to be made in a much faster time than the westward voyage, being aided rather than retarded by the prevailing winds.

Mineola, July 7.—The great British Dirigible R-34, which completed its trans-Atlantic flight yesterday morning, may start on the homeward journey late today, according to unofficial information obtained at Roosevelt field.

No confirmation could be obtained from any of the British or American naval officials.

The work of overhauling and refueling the airship was rushed during the night and was still in progress this morning.

The belief prevailed today that this work would be completed this afternoon and the return flight might be started at once, providing the weather conditions are favorable.

The final decision in this regard naturally would rest with Major Scott, commander.

More than 800 men assisted in aiding the R-34 to effect a landing yesterday and remained on duty all night. This system will continue until the airship departs.

The dirigible completed its trans-Atlantic flight yesterday morning at 9:54 following a flight officials stated, of 3,130 miles in 108 hours and twelve minutes. Major Scott estimated that the dirigible made an average speed of 29½ knots an hour.

The big airship arrived under her own power largely through a lucky shift in the direction of the wind. She encountered a stiff head wind and electrical storm over the Bay of Fundy late Saturday and was running short of fuel. Major Scott sent word to the navy department asking for aid but the wind suddenly shifted and the landing was made at Roosevelt field at 8:45.

RADICAL MOVEMENT GROWS

Socialists, Anarchists and Labor
Agitators Behind Italian Trouble

Rome, July 7.—The radical movement is spreading in Italy today. According to the latest advices received, socialist, syndicalist, anarchist and labor and political agitators were leading the movement and were advising other towns to join.

The cabinet met yesterday for further consideration of the situation. Arrests of rioters were made at Florence, according to a correspondent, and fined on lawless elements.

STATED MEETING

There will be a stated meeting of Phoenix Lodge, No. 62, tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic temple.

TO BE RATIFIED THIS WEEK

Peace Treaty Will be Sanctioned by Germans, it is Believed

(By United Press.)

Berlin, July 7.—Government leaders in session at Weimar expect the peace treaty to be ratified this week, it was learned today. The crisis between Prussians and the national government on the question of granting a greater independence to individual states, had not been solved, it was stated. The constitutional committee proposed that the delegates to the national assembly be elected for fifteen-year terms.

WHEAT NOT AVERAGING AS WELL AS EXPECTED

First Threshed in County Makes 19
Bushels and First Delivered in Rushville 14 Bushels.

SOME OF GRAINS SHRIVELED

As a general thing, the wheat crop of this year will not yield as much to the acre as in previous years. The first wheat threshed and delivered to an elevator in Rush county was that of Frank Offutt, in Posey township. His average was considered very good, however, and was a little better than expected from most places. He got 19 bushels to the acre.

The farmers were expecting that the average this year would be around 20 bushels to the acre. Last year the wheat often yielded up to 25 bushels and it is expected that this year the average in some places will go as high as 20.

The McCoy Brothers were threshing today in Posey township and delivering their wheat to the Hutchinson elevator in Arlington and their average will be determined in a few days.

The first wheat delivered to a Rushville elevator was that of Harrie Jones on Saturday. His average was 14 bushels to the acre, and it shows that the normal average will be around 15 bushels, which is below what it should be.

The cause for the poor average this year has been placed by many, as due to too much hot weather which shriveled the grains, and the stem getting nearly all of the nourishment. The stems this year are well formed and heavy, but the tassels are not properly filled out.

WILSON'S MESSAGE PRACTICALLY DONE

President is Expected to Report to Congress What Was Done at Paris.

TO EXPLAIN PEACE GUARANTY

(By United Press.)

Aboard the United States Steamship George Washington, July 7.—President Wilson's message to congress was practically completed today. Primarily it is expected to be a report to congress on what has been done in Paris, together with a broad analysis of the world situation following the conclusion of peace.

The president probably will explain the guarantee of permanent peace which has been exacted as well as the manner in which the continued blockade assures Germany's observance of the terms imposed at Versailles.

It is also believed the message will outline the economic factors necessary for American business men to consider. The president is not expected to attempt to give detailed explanations but will leave these for the department representatives of the peace commission.

ONLY THREE DAYS OF SESSION LEFT

Board of Review Starts Out This Morning Finish Reassessing
City in Record Time

FEW COMPLAINTS RECEIVED

One Man Asks that $500 be Added to His Assessment—$277,450
Put on in Two Days

With only three more days left for the annual session of the county board of review, the reviewers set out this morning to complete the reassessment of real estate and improvements in Rushville in record time.

The board has finished the appraisal of all property of this class east of Sexton street and up to Seventh street between Arthur and Sexton streets. There remains to be reassessed when the board started out this morning, all that which lies north of Seventh between Sexton and Arthur and all west of Arthur from the C. I. & W. railroad north and all west of the Big Four railroad.

The board has had remarkably few complaints, considering the amount of property which has been reassessed in Rushville. While a number have told the board that they thought their city property was too high, compared with property in the same vicinity, equally as great a number have notified the board that they are satisfied with their assessment. One Rushville man, whose house and lot had been appraised at $3,000, called on the board and asked that $500 be added to his assessment. The board did as he requested.

The reviewers put in a hard day's work the Fourth of July and also on Saturday. During these two days, real estate and improvements to the amount of $277,450 were assessed for taxation purposes.

East of the Big Four, north of Second street and west of Jackson street, valuations were fixed as follows:

Rudolph Sender, $2,600; Philip Heeb, $1,500; Homer W. and Lula Cole (2 properties) $1,800; William Trennepohl, Jr., $1,800; Hattie

STEPS TAKEN TOWARD EXTRADITING WILHELM

No Formal Representation Made
Yet to Dutch Government,
Bonar Law Announces

HINDENBURG MAY TESTIFY

(By United Press.)

London, July 7.—Andrew Bonar Law, spokesman for the government, announced in the house of commons today that no formal representation had yet been made to Holland in regard to the extradition of the former kaiser. He added, however, that steps were being taken in that direction.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg may be brought to London to testify in defense of the kaiser, it was reported today. It was also said that a number of U-boat captains and Captain Fryer were expected to arrive in London in a few days.

The former kaiser, professedly was undisturbed Sunday over the decision to bring him to trial. King George had not received the alleged offer of the surrender of Wilhelm's son to be tried in his father's stead. A Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily news declared today that the Dutch hoped for American support if they refused to extradite the ex-kaiser on grounds of traditional asylum for exile.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and Industry

The phases of usefulness the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders as a public servant are varied.

One of the services not generally known, which the Company must render, is to assist industrial institutions in keeping down their manufacturing costs.

The Company maintains a staff of highly trained lubricating engineers, whose business it is to go into industrial plants, make a careful and thorough study of their mechanical equipment, and determine what lubricants are best suited to each machine under the prevailing conditions.

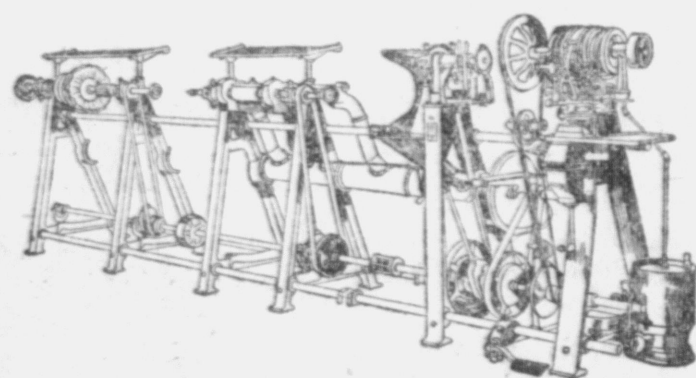

Their constant effort is to keep down manufacturing costs by specifying the particular oils and greases that will enable the machinery to deliver a maximum of service at a minimum of cost.

The work of the lubricating engineers is a part of the comprehensive service the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders.

This is another phase of the usefulness of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant, showing the constant effort being made by the Company to discharge its obligation in a complete and satisfactory manner.

We know the History of the Waist you wear

The waist you wear may be a modest garment of cotton — or again a camisole of cobwebby silk.

But be your waist a commoner or an aristocrat, we can give you its pedigree—can tell you the materials of which it is made, whence they came and the manner in which they are spun, woven and tailored to make the garment you wear.

We are able to do this because

Our cleansing is done by the latest improvements and may be rightly termed as "Odorlessly done."

Phone us today and have us call for your garments.

"Green-Seal" your house and save repair bills

House-owners know the annoyance and expense of continually paying out money for repair bills, but by using Hanna's Green Seal Paint, on their property occasionally, these bills can be done away with to a large extent. Any surface, if left to itself and not properly painted, is bound to decay sooner or later, whereas a coat or two of paint at reasonable intervals will prepare it to withstand all the ravages of time and wet weather.

THRIFT MEANS FREEDOM.

Personal freedom, says the Elkhart Truth, consists of the right of every man to do what he pleases, to go where he pleases, and to be what he pleases so long as he does not interfere with the rights of his neighbors. This is the ideal of individual freedom, but how few of us reach it.

Most of us are weighed down by shackles of circumstance which hamper our every movement. Our progress toward our own ideals of liberty and happiness is painful and slow. Unmet obligations, the worry over what will become of us in our old age, the anxiety of seeing that our children are given a proper start in life, armed with the proper weapons for battling with the world—all these hamper our freedom.

We cannot be free. Free from the fear of want and all these material worries and anxieties which bind us down.

There is a royal road to freedom. It is thrift. Thrift will give us independence of all about us, freedom to go where we please, do what we please and be what we please.

Thrift is not miserliness. Thrift is sane saving, wise buying, the avoidance of waste and safe investment. This is the thrift which our people came to know during the trying days of the war, and which should become a permanent American habit. This is the thrift which the government is trying to foster through the continued sale of Thrift Stamps and War Savings stamps.

This is the thrift that will make millions free if they see and use their opportunity.

Sap and Salt

By BERT MOSES

Hanging on is all there is to anything.

The way to go ahead is to start where others have left off.

Bolshevism means anything you don't like in the way other people do things.

When a man is so good that he cannot be made better he is as good as dead.

There are two kinds of men—those who say they are honest and those who are honest.

No merchant can succeed unless satisfaction goes with the package as it goes out of the store.

Hez Heck says: "Women put in a lot more time on the outside of their heads than they do on the inside."

No Red Tape to it.

There is no red tape to be unravelled in accepting disabled soldiers, sailors and marines as employees. The Federal Board for Vocational Education is placing, without training being necessary, a large number of wounded soldiers. The employer does not obligate himself in any way by taking these men on his pay roll, except to give him a square deal. Agents of the Federal Board watch over the man placed, just to see that the work is suitable to his physical condition and to his capability as a workman. No reports from the employer are required. Courtesy, consideration and fairness to the man who did his share in the great struggle for humanity, is little enough to ask.

The district vocational officers have a big job—and the records of the 110,363 registrations, the 9181 men approved for courses and the 3478 men who have already entered training give evidence that the job is being well attended to.

If, however, you indulged in a little wild insanity on our mildly sane Fourth, you have our permission to forgive yourself. May you live to whoop'er up at the next one!

Playing golf is fine exercise, but so is hoeing corn. One is expensive the other is profitable. You take your choice.

Now don't make puns at the expense of the fat woman. She'll probably retort that there is more to her than there is to you.

The senate, no doubt, will be tendering a number of receptions to the president on his return. Greetings will be cool and refreshments iced.

Who is the most popular man in the United States? Modesty, of course, forbids, etc.

Perhaps it is worth while for the country to find out that it can get along splendidly without a president.

PETROGRAD IS IN A HORRID SHAPE

City That Was Once Gay is Now a Desolate Place and Like a Prison in Itself

PEOPLE ARE STARVING

Moscow is More Normal—Food and Supplies are Not as Scarce as in Petrograd.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, July 7.—Petrograd is but the ghost of a city that was formerly as gay as money and people could make it. Petrograd is a prison in itself, under the tightest state of siege that a trembling regime can devise to prevent uprisings.

Petrograd's wide streets are almost deserted. The days are almost as barren as the long twilight evenings, which last until midnight now. No one is allowed on the streets after eleven in the evening. Every house must have one of its occupants outside its gate on guard at all hours—to guard what nobody knows, but those are orders from the military commander.

Stores are closed and buying is done entirely through secret channels. The beautiful buildings are inhabited by bolshevik officials. Hotels are dark and dirty, and are no longer public hostilities. They are the "hang-outs" of the commissaires.

There probably is not a sadder city in the world than the once wonderful Petrograd. The place is under the spell of apprehension of either bolshevik terror or enemy invasion. Most of the people hope for the latter, since it would mean food.

Most of Petrograd is starving. It is estimated that seven or eight hundred people die daily through hunger or privation. Disease is rampant. Medical supplies are not to be found.

Food is sold in insufficient quantities at the co-operatives, but nobody can live on it. The soup kitchens serve such as they have, but substances that none but the ravenous can mouth.

The position of foreigners is pitiful. They are mostly old people or refugees, waiting for the chance to escape. They have nothing, and without enormous funds one cannot live. With limitless funds one can eat fairly well, buying on the sly.

Confiscations continue. Supposedly they are official. The same old terrorist methods prevail. A typical case was cited by the Polish woman. This woman lived alone with her aged mother in an apartment. One night about midnight half a dozen sailors appeared battering down the door, demanding to search for weapons. Rudely and destructively they bullied the women and stayed until four in the morning.

They broke open every trunk and box and stole all money they could find. This they did in violation of the regulations for protection of foreigners. Trunks left by friends of the family were broken open with axes.

Next day the victims protested to their diplomatic representatives. They were assured they would get their funds and papers back. They did but with fifty thousand rubles gone. This was the third time this house had been searched for confiscations.

Disease rages in Petrograd, worse than any other region in Russia. Typhus is especially bad. It is so serious that the Finns put everyone who escapes from Russia into quarantine. In none of the Russian cities are there means of combatting disease now. The Danish Red Cross is the only organization allowed to conduct relief work, and it operates under the greatest of difficulties.

Moscow is more normal and is less tragic than Petrograd. It is better supplied with food, and prices are half as high. Petrograd is in danger of being isolated anytime by an advance from Esthonia. The bolsheviks are panicky and are prepared to evacuate hastily if necessary. Shops are almost entirely closed and the workmen mobilized. Trenches and barbed wire barricades outside Petrograd are intri-

One of George Creel's official movies, showing a batch of Scotch killers going viciously over the top, and photographed about seventy miles back of the firing line, incurred considerable of a rumpus in a movie house between a Scotchman and an Irishman. The Scot elated at the charge of the heather-jumpers, nudged the Irishman in the ribs and said:

"Mon, 'tis proof ye want? Look-it! Who is the bravest race of men? Scots! See 'em top the trench, mon. Where be the Irish?"

"The Irish? If you could see further ye'd find the Irish away up at the front holdin' the Dooch while the Kilties is being photographed."

A prize of one dollar will be awarded for all funny stories which are accepted for this column. They should be brief and to the point.

ate and many, built mostly by labor of the women, who are herded in hundreds by the Red Guards.

In Moscow there are many people in the streets, and they do not seem particularly depressed or hungry. They have adjusted themselves to the new conditions and are making the most of it with a shrug of the shoulders.

Women are quite well dressed. Many of them even stunningly gowned. In answer to your query, they tell you they are wearing their best left-over gowns. Even evening dresses are worn on the streets or at work, since people can get no new working clothes. The men are mostly shabby, and, in addition, dirty.

Crime has greatly decreased, according to the bolsheviks. This is probably due to the extremely harsh penalties. Practically all of the punishments are for political crimes. Stealing is more or less legalized for privileged bolsheviks under the confiscation system. Ordinary mortals are punished for stealing even food.

There are remarkably few beggars in Moscow and Petrograd, though more in the latter than in the former. Those who formerly begged are now sent to detention homes established, and are allowed limited rations. Begging is forbidden.

In the smaller cities there has not been such radical reform socially. Life is more normal. Drinsk, for example, is simply closed up, but not reformed. Stores are boarded up, as in the larger cities, but business thrives on the quiet.

One of the unfair features of the new system is that the fine hotels and houses formerly belonging to the bourgeoisie are confiscated and are rapidly decaying. They are inhabited almost entirely by the government officials—commissaires. No workmen live in them nor are workmen's homes bettered. Russian cities have simply fallen under the tyranny of a new privileged class, the bolsheviks.

DISREGARD OF LAW GRAHAM'S CHARGE

Chairman of House Committee on War Department Expenditures Makes a Statement

A "SECRET GOVERNMENT"

Advisory Commission of National Defense Council Criticized—Charges Enumerated

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—United States had a "secret government" during the war which functioned in disregard of law, Chairman Graham of the special house committee on war department expenditures, charged in a statement today.

Graham characterized as the secret government, the advisory commission of the council of national defense composed of Hollis Godfrey, Howard Coffin, Bernard Baruch, Samuel Gompers, Franklin Martin, Julius Rosewald and Daniel Willard.

Charges made by Graham were: That the president disregarded the intent of congress to make the commission purely advisory and made members real executives.

The commission allowed interested parties to fix prices of war supplies and violated the trust laws.

A press censorship was planned by the commission at the suggestion of Phillip Patchin of the state department.

The commission designed a system of constitutional control of food and selected Herbert Hoover as director.

Such unprecedented and illimitable powers were assumed by the commission that several of the cabinet members protested.

The work of the commission was such that the federal bureaus acted against each other thus increasing the price of supplies.

The commission had secret meetings four months before the war to discuss war problems.

CASUALTIES REPORTED TO DATE TOTAL 290,220

Number Killed in Action, Including 382 at Sea, is 34,032—Some Corrections Today.

NINE HOOSIERS IN THE LIST

Washington, July 7.—The commanding general of the American Expeditionary Forces issued the following list of casualties today: Killed in action, 8; died from wounds, 5; died from accident and other causes, 8; died of disease, 10; lost at sea on "Moldavia," 1; wounded severely, 29; wounded, degree undetermined, 23; wounded slightly, 207; missing in action, 3; total 291.

Total number of casualties to date, including those reported above: killed in action (including 382 at sea), 34,032; died of wounds, 13,586; died of disease, 23,423; died from accident and other causes, 5,003; wounded in action, (over 85 per cent returned to duty), 212,119; missing in action (not including prisoners released and returned) 2,057; total to date, 290,220.

Nine Hoosiers were included in the list:

Died from accident and other causes—Private Guy Little, Ambia.

Wounded, degree undetermined—Private Ernest Engl, Commiskey.

Wounded slightly—Private William K. Feagley, Elberfield; Private Ansil Lindsey, Michigan City; Private Lewis B. Snyder, Lagrange.

Died of disease, previously reported died of wounds—Private Lonzy McDonald, Shelbyville.

Died, previously reported missing in action—Theodore Wright, Hamburg.

Killed in action—Private Richard Harwood Wingate, Lyons; Private Sidney Sims, Tell City.

Word has been received here of the birth of a ten and a half pound baby boy to the wife of Jess Vance in Los Angeles, California, Saturday noon. He has been named James Doll. Mr. and Mrs. Vance formerly lived here.

"THRIFT WEEK" IN STATE A SUCCESS

Resulted in Substantial Increase in Sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps

CAUSE MANY TO EXPERIMENT

Encouraged Thousands to Try Plan of Saving Income First, and Spending Afterwards

Indianapolis, July 7.—"Thrift Week" in Indiana was a success, according to a statement made by Robert E. Springsteen, Director Indiana War Savings Committee. It resulted in a substantial increase in the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps, and better than that, according to Mr. Springsteen, it had the effect of causing thousands of families in the State to experiment with systematic savings plans.

"The Government needs the money to be realized from the sale of stamps," said Mr. Springsteen, "and is depending heavily on the sale of stamp for its financing in the future. That, however, might be called a temporary need. The real, permanent need of the United States is the necessity for lasting habits of Thrift among all the people. The Government, therefore, is emphasizing the saving feature in its campaign to sell W. S. S."

"Thrift Week was the means of placing thousands of Hoosiers on record as planning to save systematically, week by week and month by month. It encouraged thousands to try the plan of saving a certain share of their income first, and spending afterwards. For years too many Hoosiers have spent first and saved afterwards, with the result that they frequently had nothing left to save.

"Thrift Week also resulted in thousands of Hoosiers applying for household budget systems, in order that they might apportion their household expenses in advance of paying out their money. We are now mailing out to them thousands of budget pamphlets. The chart in each pamphlet places savings at the head of the list of places where money should be put.

We will have definite figures as regards the sales of stamps caused by Thrift Week later. Just now we are more than pleased at the impetus given savings habit by Thrift Week."

CITY WORKERS BACK ON JOB

King and the Misses Margaret and Kathryn King, of Franklin and Ebert Rodgers of Peru.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Holmes entertained with a delicious fried chicken dinner yesterday at their home in East Eighth street in honor of Carl Higgs, who recently returned from overseas service. Besides the guest of honor those present were Mrs. Mary Higgs and sons Howard and Raymond of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Hiner, of Newcastle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyers and William Hardwick of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Meyers and daughters Fern and Nellie, Mrs. Henry Meyers and daughter Floy of Newcastle and Frank Webb of near Milroy formed a picnic party yesterday to Napoleon where they spent a part of the day. Dinner and supper were greatly enjoyed along the river banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gohring and Mr. and Mrs. Ambros Gohring entertained on the Fourth and over the week-end the following out of town guests: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gohring of Denison, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gohring and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matern and son Bobbie of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Keener of Newcastle, and Mrs. Audrey Bock of West Virginia.

Miss Ramona Eubank entertained a number of guests last evening in honor of her house guest, Miss Lucille Thackaberry of Sterling, Ill. Among those who were present for the six o'clock dinner, were the Misses Marian Sparks, Gladys Wallace, Esther Anderson and Helen Frazee and Frank Griffin, Russell Gray, Dwight VanOsdol all of this city, Paul Sutherland of Greencastle and Mr. Crosby of Roachdale.

Mrs. Mary Poston delightfully entertained a number of her friends yesterday with a beautiful two course dinner party. The centerpiece for the table was a bouquet of garden flowers and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dalbey of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner and son Charles and daughter Anna, of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carmichael and son Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hinkle and Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Logan and daughter Olive.

The Tri Kappa sorority held an initiation for three new members, the Misses Elsie Frazee, Helen Norris and Mae Taylor, Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Jessie Kitchen in West Third street. After the initiation the members went to the home of Miss Olive Buell, living east of the city, where a delightful dinner was served, honoring the new members. Roses and ferns formed the decorations for the table, where covers were laid for twenty-five guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and son and daughter, of Findlay, O., and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stough and daughter of Erie, Pa., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett, yesterday. In the afternoon they formed a motoring party and went to Connorsville and Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and family and Mr. Stough, accompanied by Miss Louise Hogsett of this city, returned to their separate homes this morning. Mrs. Stough and daughter remained for a few days visit with relatives in this city.

Honoring Miss Mamie Knutz, who was married that evening to Lawrence Harmon, of Kokomo, Mr. and Mrs. John Neukam, of Mays, Ind., delightfully entertained a few friends with a six o'clock dinner party, Thursday evening. Covers were laid for Mrs. Ethel Knecht, Lowell Smalley, Mr. and Mrs. John Kuntz and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Coyne. Immediately after the dinner the wedding ceremony took place at the Catholic parsonage in this city at 8:30 o'clock. The bride was beautifully dressed in white georgette with a wedding veil caught in cap effect with orange blossoms. The only attendants were Mrs. Ethel Knecht and Lowell Smalley. Following the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. M. W. Lyons, a reception was given in their home by Mr. and Mrs. John Neukam. The bride and bridegroom left for Kokomo, to visit Mr. Harmon's parents for two weeks, after which they will be at home in this city.

MISS COLUMBIA Celebrates the Fourth

Surely, in all our history she and we have never had better reason to celebrate.

We're going to make this historic Fourth a day we'll long remember. And Columbia Grafonolas and Records are ready to play their patriotic part in the big celebration.

On Columbia Records you'll find all the music of victory—the glorious songs and marches that played our boys into action over there, the national anthems of our Allies, American patriotic airs from Revolutionary days to date. The Columbia Grafonola plays this inspiring music with the snap and dash of the greatest military bands. Call at Boxley's Piano Store, the Columbia Record Shop. We will play you the latest selections on the newest Grafonolas. Then you can make your own selection and celebrate the greatest Fourth of July in our history with appropriate patriotic music.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned commissioner appointed in an action for partition in the Rush Circuit Court wherein John Wilkoff et al. are plaintiffs and Mary Nixon et al. are defendants for the partition of certain real estate therein described, to sell the real estate described in the complaint in said cause, I will as such commissioner, on

TUESDAY, THE 15th DAY OF JULY, 1919,
at one o'clock p. m. on said day, offer at private sale on the farm located 2 miles northwest of Rushville and 4 miles southeast of Raleigh and 4 miles northeast of Kings Station, the following described real estate in Washington township, Rush county, to-wit:

One hundred acres of uniform width off the entire east side of the southeast quarter of section 29, township 15 north of range 11 east, except a strip of land of uniform width off the entire east side thereof containing fifty-three acres, leaving in the tract described forty-seven acres. Also beginning at the northeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 30, township 15, range 11 and running the west 30 rods and 12 links to a stone, thence in a southern direction 51 rods and 6 links to a stone; thence east 20 rods to a stone on the half section line; thence north 51 rods and 7 links to the place of beginning, containing 9 acres and 109 rods.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash on day of sale; one-third in six months, and one-third in nine months, purchaser giving his notes for deferred payment drawing six per cent interest from date of sale, secured by a mortgage on said real estate, privilege given to pay all cash. The wheat on said land is reserved, but one-half of the growing corn will go to the purchaser, except the corn on the 2 acres north of the possession of said farm given on September 1st, 1919, except the 9 acres and possession given of that March 1, 1920. This farm is the best described good house barn and outbuildings, good water and on rural mail route, near to school and all under cultivation; good rich land. This farm is the best described of the late Arthur Wilkoff, deceased, and is being sold in partition by his heirs and the same could not be divided. Come and see the land and buy a good home of your own.

Webb Cullen, late of Hamilton, O., who was a frequent visitor in this city and related here extensively, was found dead in bed in a New York hotel last Friday, having just landed from overseas service, where he was a lieutenant attached to a signal corps unit.

Mr. Cullen was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Cullen, who recently moved from Hamilton to New York City. He was 31 years old and possessed a fine physique and a towering height and was always noticed for these traits, while visiting in this city. He and his family were often guests here of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Sexton and other relatives, and his wife and child reside now in Hamilton.

The sad part of the affair was that he had just arrived from overseas and was on his way to see his parents in New York City, before going on to Hamilton. Following is an extract from a Hamilton paper which explains the manner of his death.

"Few real details of the death of Lieut. Cullen had been received at Hamilton. He arrived in New York from overseas, late Friday, so late in fact that he could not go to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Cullen for the night. However, he promptly called his father telling him of his safe arrival and stating that he was very tired and would go to a hotel for the night and see his father on Saturday morning.

Lieut. Cullen, accompanied by a boon companion, went to a hotel where they registered and retired. On Saturday morning when Lieut. Cullen's companion awoke he was shocked to find his associate dead. He at once notified Lieut. Cullen's father. The remains at once were taken in charge by funeral directors and arrangements made to send them to Hamilton for interment in Greenwood. Then it was that the sad message to the waiting wife in Hamilton was put upon the wires and brought to her the news that turned her joy into grief and told her that the devoted husband had been taken from her when almost again within her grasp."

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous,
Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime.

Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves.

People with plenty of red blood corpuscles and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support.

There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost.

To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as men now go, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-feren every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

PRINCE OF WALES IS VERY POPULAR

Escape From the Frigid Atmosphere of The Court Developed His Character Wonderfully

IS A MOST CAPABLE SAILOR

Another Proof of Popularity is That the Prince Has Been Accepted as Fashion Leader

By PERCY M. SARR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, (By Mail)—The Prince of Wales is celebrating his 25th birthday by starting housekeeping on his own, free from the restraint of Buckingham Palace, where he has had to govern his comings and goings by the etiquette of court and the convenience of his royal parents. York House, St. James's, is the Prince's new home, and the alterations and redecoration being practically completed he is busily engaged in moving in.

Whatever the war has done for most royal families, it has firmly established the House of Windsor on the throne of England, at least, as far as the present heir to the throne is concerned. The stranger does not need to probe public opinion very deeply to find that there is a sincere popular and personal regard for the Prince of Wales, who has already inherited most of the national affection for his grandfather, the late King Edward. King Edward's hold on public affection, engendered after a most unpopular period of "wild cat sowing," was due to his very human failings and virtues, but his grandson, after a colorless start, due possibly to the fact that he advertised no special virtues, has attained the same goal by proving himself a very human young man.

Prior to the war he was always regarded as being too much impressed with the responsibilities of his future position, and likely to develop into a colorless personality. In public he was solemn and shy, and was suspected of being too "mother-ridden."

Then came the war, with the rush of young men to the front. The Prince showed himself a spirited youngster by insisting on being allowed to take his chance with the youths of his own age. Revolutionary opponents of the monarchical system declared that this was "good advertising," but the soldiers who encountered him in France and Italy say that if it was merely advertising the monarchy, it was a risky job the way the Prince did it. Far from sitting in the shelter of G. H. Q. or in the comparative safety of the S. O. S. he took his turn in the front line and more than once narrowly escaped the further advertisement of a "Blighly" (B. E. F.) for wound.

This welcome escape from the frigid atmosphere of the Court developed his character in a manner which would have been quite impossible under any other conditions. And the development was all for the good. His preternatural solemnity fell from him like a cloak, and the open air life, with its mixture of danger, freedom and democratic camaraderie, disclosed a most essentially human personality. Command of men has given him self-confidence and an intimate knowledge of men, matters and social conditions.

The Prince is a most capable sailor, fully worthy of his naval rank of lieutenant, and his promotion to the army rank of colonel on the staff was more than a complimentary staid due to royal favor, for Sir Douglas Haig's staff swear there is no more competent staff officer than the heir to the British throne.

For Skin Tortures.

Don't worry about eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or extra large bottle at $1.00.

Zemo generally removes pimples, blackheads, blotches, eczema and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable. The F. W. He is also a capable aviator, although his brother Prince Albert aims at the title of "flying prince", and is in the Royal Air Force. He has lately developed a keen interest in the housing question, and as a considerable landlord he has every opportunity of obtaining first hand information. Which opportunities he has taken, considerably to the chagrin and surprise of the estate agents. The Prince, as Duke of Cornwall, owns a large portion of the most congested districts of south London, and he has made a number of surprise visits to investigate living conditions.

Another proof of his popularity is that the Prince has been accepted as fashion leader, and the "nuts" are assiduously imitating his style of dress, and studying his taste in socks, ties, shoes and hats.

Amusements

Fifth Episode at Mystic

Constantly increasing audiences are finding out that "The Red Glove"—the Marie Walcamp serial which is showing weekly at the Mystic theatre, is far and away the most entertaining serial on the market. The fifth episode will be shown today and involves the adventures of Billie, the heroine, who has climbed into the Hidden Valley by means of a rope.

A Detective Story.

Who, that loves a detective story, is unfamiliar with that famous character created by Carolyn Wells, the American Sherlock Holmes, the hero of many of her novels—Stone. He will be seen in the flesh in "Vicky Van," Paramount screen version of one of Miss Wells' latest novels, in which beautiful Ethel Clayton is the star, and which will be shown at the Princess tonight.

Ethel Clayton will be seen in the name part, a sort of dual role. She is in reality Ruth Schuyler, wife of a wealthy man old enough to be her father. With a legacy of her own, to escape the hateful monotony of her married life, she assumes a different name "Victoria Van Allen," and disguising herself, holds weekly bohemian parties in an adjoining house she has purchased. Her husband discovers the game and abuses her. He is later found dead—there enters the mystery and the detective who solves the problem frees the young widow from suspicion.

"Vicky Van" is a modern detective story with all the attendant thrills of a narrative of that des-

BARELY ESCAPE DROWNING

Miss Lillian Martin and Ralph Ennis Rescued.

While on a picnic outing the Fourth of July, Miss Lillian Martin and Ralph Ennis of Blue Ridge narrowly escaped drowning. Miss Martin was in the creek, one mile south of Blue Ridge, and Ennis attempted to rescue her.

The Misses Martin, Messrs. Neeb, Ennis and Inlow were bathing in Cons creek and Miss Martin stepped in deep water. Ennis was near her at the time and attempted to rescue her. She went down three times and he went down twice in his attempt at rescue. The two were saved by Neeb and Inlow.

It will appeal to all who like a romance with a touch of mystery and much suspense. Miss Clayton is ably supported by a fine cast and the direction by Robert G. Vignola, is said to be highly artistic.

Tomorrow night Dorothy Dalton will be shown in "The Lady of Red Butte," a story of the west.

HUNGERFORD ROAD CONTRACT IS LET

Commissioners Select High Bidder,
Lawrence & Ennis, Preferring
Pit Gravel to Pumped Gravel

HUMPHRY PETITION HELD UP

Board Meets Again Tomorrow to Receive Bids on New Infirmary
—County Council Called

The county commissioners met in regular session this afternoon, the principal thing coming before them being the awarding of the contract for the Hungerford highway. The road is to be constructed of gravel, and is a mile in length, being on the line between the townships of Walker and Rushville.

For this highway there were two bidders and it was a case of the highest bidder getting the contract, Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington were the successful bidders, their price being $9,798, and Moore and Crise of Decatur county bid $8,990. The road has to bridges in it, which are to be constructed of concrete, and this brought the bids up rather high.

The difference in the bids was due to the kind of gravel to be used, and the commissioners preferred to pay more for pit gravel than to use pumped gravel.

The county commissioners accepted the resignation today of County Clerk George B. Moore, Jr., but his successor was not named. It is likely that an appointment will be made in the next few days.

The petition of land owners living in Anderson and Richland townships to vacate a road known as the Humphry road, was postponed until August 4. Several land owners objected to the closing of the road as it is the only way to reach their land, and the commissioners postponed the decision as bonds will have to be issued in order to pay the expenses.

The commissioners will meet again tomorrow to receive bids for the county poor farm building. The county council is also called for tomorrow for the purpose of approving a bond issue of $85,000 to pay the expense of building a new infirmary.

LOG ROLLING CONTEST TO BE HELD AUGUST 20

Local Modern Woodmen Lodge Will
Elect Ten Delegates Thursday
Night to Attend Meeting

$300 IN PRIZES OFFERED

The annual Log Rolling contest of the Indiana Modern Woodmen Log Rolling association, will be held at Shelbyville, August 20. The events of the day and evening, as outlined in the official program received by Clerk J. P. Stech, is as follows: 1) A. m. call to order by the president, Elmer Bassett; transaction of regular business and selection of next place to hold the annual affair. One o'clock in the afternoon will be given over to a band concert, followed by an address on "Woodcraft" by Charles E. Welan, national lecturer of Madison, Wis.

The remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to drill contests and many prizes will be awarded, $150 as first, $100 for second, $50 for third. Prizes will also be awarded in the amateur drill contest, which will be open for any forester in uniform. At night a class of 100 will be given the initiation degree, preceded by a parade of uniformed foresters.

The local order will meet Thursday night to select eleven delegates to go to Shelbyville.

RAIN FRESH IN THE COUNTRY

Heat Wave is Broken and Weather
Today is Comfortable

Fair weather with moderate temperature is predicted following the break in the heat wave Saturday night. The temperature dropped late Saturday and Sunday and today the weather was very comfortable. Although there was no rain in the immediate vicinity of Rushville, reports reaching this city said that there was a heavy downpour in the southeastern part of the county. The corn and grass crops are greatly in need of rain.

NONE TO BE REBUILT FOR PRESENT AT LEAST

No Plans Made For Replacing Buildings Destroyed by Fire at Falmouth Saturday

STORE IS DOING BUSINESS

Following the disastrous fire of last Saturday morning in Falmouth, when the I. O. O. F. hall, the Collyer store and residences of Quiney Rees and S. D. Davison burned down, the opinion today was that none of the buildings would be rebuilt for the present.

The Collyer store was removed to another location on the opposite side of the street, and Mr. Collyer had made no plans for a future building. The residences which were destroyed will not be rebuilt, it was definitely stated today. Mr. Rees is a farm laborer and Mr. Davison is a blacksmith.

The rebuilding of the Odd Fellows Hall will probably take place later, but nothing definitely has been decided upon, nor can plans be made until after the lodge has determined its loss, and a business meeting held. The insurance in any of the cases would not go very far towards rebuilding, especially with the high prices of building materials.

WASHINGTON BEGINS TO LIVEN UP TODAY

Congressmen Return After Fourth of July Vacation to Begin
Strenuous Summer Session.

PEACE SKIRMISHES ARE DUE

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—After a Fourth of July lull, Washington hoped to liven up today with the return of men to congress for resumption of work tomorrow and for making final preparations for President Wilson's arrival tomorrow night.

Congress is expected to plunge into what is expected to be one of the most strenuous summer sessions ever known.

In the house the wets and dries will clash over the strict prohibition legislation. In the senate the first half of the week will see skirmishes preliminary to the battle to begin Thursday following presentation of the peace treaty and league covenant by President Wilson.

WILSON SPEAKS THURSDAY

Washington, July 7.—President Wilson will address the senate on the peace treaty and the league of nations at 12:15 p. m. Thursday, it was announced today at the White House.

RICHMOND STORM CENTER

Richmond, Ind., July 7.—Richmond was the center of an unusual storm, late Saturday, that apparently confined itself to an area two or three miles square.

THRASHERS MUST CARRY INSURANCE

Farmers May be Held Liable For Accidents if Thrashermen Are Not Insured

NEWSOM MAKES STATEMENT

Employers Must Have Compensation Insurance But Farmers Are Exempt, With One Exception

That farmers will be liable for the damages in case a thrasher is injured and the owner of the thrashing outfit carries no compensation insurance, is the construction W. H. Newsom, president of the Bartholomew County Farmers association, places on amendments to the state compensation act passed by the last legislature.

Farmers are exempt from the compensation law, but this is a special case covered by an amendment, according to the letter written by Mr. Newsom to Lewis W. Taylor of Indianapolis, president of the Indiana State Federation of Farmers associations.

Several Rush county farmers noticed the story which was printed in the Indianapolis News and expect to make it a point to see that the thrashermen they employ carry compensation insurance.

The liability results, it is asserted, from amendments to the compensation law passed by the last state assembly, one provision of which says that "any person contracting for the performance of any work without exacting from the contractors a certificate from the industrial board showing that such contractor has complied with Section 68 of this act, shall be liable to the same extent as the contractor for compensation, physician's fees, hospital and nurse fees, burial expenses, on account of the injury or death of any employe of such contractor, due to an accident arising out of and in the course of the performance of the work covered by such contract."

Section 68, referred to, provides that "every employer under this act shall either insure or keep insured his liability hereunder in some corporation, association or organization authorized to transact the business of workmen's compensation insurance in this state or shall furnish to the industrial board satisfactory proof of his financial ability to pay direct the compensation in the amount and manner and when due as provided for in this act."

Mr. Newsom points out that this question is of great importance to farmers employing thrashermen to thrash their grain, as they might not think of the importance of seeing that such thrasherman carry the proper insurance. During the last year it is estimated there has been one accident of more or less severity every twenty-five thrashing outfits in the state, there likely will be from 200 to 350 accidents for which farmers will be liable to pay, unless they make sure the thrashermen carry insurance.

TWO OPERATIONS

Two operations were performed for removal of tonsils and adenoids, this morning, by Dr. Frank H. Green in his new hospital just opened over his office in East Second street. The patients were Virginia Gray, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Gray, living in Shelbyville, and Joel M. Harrold, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harrold of this city.

TO START RETURN TRIP TOMORROW

R-34, Which Landed at Roosevelt Field Sunday Morning, Prepares For Homeward Journey

OVERHAULED, AND REFUELED.

Dirigible Arrives on Own Power Largely Through Luck Shift in Direction of Wind

(By United Press.)

Minneapolis, July 7.—The British Dirigible R-34 which completed its trans-Atlantic flight yesterday, will start on its return trip at eight o'clock tomorrow morning, if weather conditions are favorable. This announcement was made this afternoon by the Brigadier General Chatillon of the British air ministry at Washington, who added that the airship would probably precede its homeward flight by circling over New York City at a low altitude.

The return trip is expected to be made in a much faster time than the westward voyage, being aided rather than retarded by the prevailing winds.

Minneapolis, July 7.—The great British Dirigible R-34, which completed its trans-Atlantic flight yesterday morning, may start on the homeward journey late today, according to unofficial information obtained at Roosevelt field.

No confirmation could be obtained from any of the British or American naval officials.

The work of overhauling and refueling the airship was rushed during the night and was still in progress this morning.

The belief prevailed today that this work would be completed this afternoon and the return flight might be started at once, providing the weather conditions are favorable.

The final decision in this regard naturally would rest with Major Scott, commander.

More than 800 men assisted in aiding the R-34 to effect a landing yesterday and remained on duty all night. This system will continue until the airship departs.

The dirigible completed its trans-Atlantic flight yesterday morning at 9:54 following a flight officials stated, of 3,130 miles in 108 hours and twelve minutes. Major Scott estimated that the dirigible made an average speed of 29 1/2 knots an hour.

The big airship arrived under her own power largely through a lucky shift in the direction of the wind. She encountered a stiff head wind and electrical storm over the Bay of Fundy late Saturday and was running short of fuel. Major Scott sent word to the navy department asking for aid but the wind suddenly shifted and the landing was made at Roosevelt field at 8:45.

RADICAL MOVEMENT GROWS

Socialists, Anarchists and Labor Agitators Behind Italian Trouble

Rome, July 7.—The radical movement is spreading in Italy today. According to the latest advices received, socialist, syndicalists, anarchists and labor and political agitators were leading the movement and were advising other towns to join.

The cabinet met yesterday for further consideration of the situation. Arrests of rioters were made at Florence, according to a correspondent, and fined on lawless elements.

STATED MEETING

There will be a stated meeting of Phoenix Lodge, No. 62, tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic temple.

TO BE RATIFIED THIS WEEK

Peace Treaty Will be Sanctioned by Germans, it is Believed

(By United Press.)

Berlin, July 7.—Government leaders in session at Weimar expect the peace treaty to be ratified this week, it was learned today. The crisis between Prussians and the national government on the question of granting a greater independence to individual states, had not been solved, it was stated. The constitutional committee proposed that the delegates to the national assembly be elected for fifteen-year terms.

WHEAT NOT AVERAGING AS WELL AS EXPECTED

First Threshed in County Makes 19 Bushels and First Delivered in Rushville 14 Bushels.

SOME OF GRAINS SHRIVELED

As a general thing, the wheat crop of this year will not yield as much to the acre as in previous years. The first wheat threshed and delivered to an elevator in Rush county was that of Frank Offutt, in Posey township. His average was considered very good, however, and was a little better than expected from most places. He got 19 bushels to the acre.

The farmers were expecting that the average this year would be around 20 bushels to the acre. Last year the wheat often yielded up to 25 bushels and it is expected that this year the average in some places will go as high as 20.

The McCoy Brothers were threshing today in Posey township and delivering their wheat to the Hutchinson elevator in Arlington and their average will be determined in a few days.

The first wheat delivered to a Rushville elevator was that of Harrie Jones on Saturday. His average was 14 bushels to the acre, and it shows that the normal average will be around 15 bushels, which is below what it should be.

The cause for the poor average this year has been placed by many, as due to too much hot weather which shriveled the grains, and the stem getting nearly all of the nourishment. The stems this year are well formed and heavy, but the tassels are not properly filled out.

WILSON'S MESSAGE PRACTICALLY DONE

President is Expected to Report to Congress What Was Done at Paris.

TO EXPLAIN PEACE GUARANTY

(By United Press.)

Aboard the United States Steamship George Washington, July 7.—President Wilson's message to congress was practically completed today. Primarily it is expected to be a report to congress on what has been done in Paris, together with a broad analysis of the world situation following the conclusion of peace.

The president probably will explain the guarantee of permanent peace which has been exacted as well as the manner in which the continued blockade assures Germany's observance of the terms imposed at Versailles.

It is also believed the message will outline the economic factors necessary for "American business men to consider. The president is not expected to attempt to give detailed explanations, but will leave these for the department representatives of the peace commission.

ONLY THREE DAYS OF SESSION LEFT

Board of Review Starts Out This Morning Finish Reassessing City in Record Time

FEW COMPLAINTS RECEIVED

One Man Asks that $500 be Added to His Assessment—$277,450 Put on in Two Days

With only three more days left for the annual session of the county board of review, the reviewers set out this morning to complete the reassessment of real estate and improvements in Rushville in record time.

The board has finished the appraisal of all property of this class east of Sexton street and up to Seventh street between Arthur and Sexton streets. There remains to be reassessed when the board started out this morning, all that which lies north of Seventh between Sexton and Arthur and all west of Arthur from the C. I. & W. railroad north and all west of the Big Four railroad.

The board has had remarkably few complaints, considering the amount of property which has been reassessed in Rushville. While a number have told the board that they thought their city property was too high, compared with property in the same vicinity, equally as great a number have notified the board that they are satisfied with their assessment. One Rushville man, whose house and lot had been appraised at $3,000, called on the board and asked that $500 be added to his assessment. The board did as he requested.

The reviewers put in a hard day's work the Fourth of July and also on Saturday. During these two days, real estate and improvements to the amount of $277,450 were assessed for taxation purposes.

East of the Big Four, north of Second street and west of Jackson street, valuations were fixed as follows:

Rudolph Sendder, $2,600; Philip Heeb, $1,500; Homer W. and Lulu Cole (2 properties) $1,800; William Trennepohl, Jr., $1,800; Hattie

STEPS TAKEN TOWARD EXTRADITING WILHELM

No Formal Representation Made Yet to Dutch Government, Bonar Law Announces

HINDENBURG MAY TESTIFY

(By United Press.)

London, July 7.—Andrew Bonar Law, spokesman for the government, announced in the house of commons today that no formal representation had yet been made to Holland in regard to the extradition of the former kaiser. He added, however, that steps were being taken in that direction.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg may be brought to London to testify in defense of the kaiser, it was reported today. It was also said that a number of U-boat captains and Captain Fryer were expected to arrive in London in a few days.

The former kaiser, professingly was undisturbed Sunday over the decision to bring him to trial. King George had not received the alleged offer of the surrender of Wilhelm, son to be tried in his father's stead. A Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily news declared today that the Dutch hoped for American support. It was refused to extradite the kaiser on grounds of traditional asylum for exile.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and Industry

The phases of usefulness the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders as a public servant are varied.

One of the services not generally known, which the Company must render, is to assist industrial institutions in keeping down their manufacturing costs.

The Company maintains a staff of highly trained lubricating engineers, whose business it is to go into industrial plants, make a careful and thorough study of their mechanical equipment, and determine what lubricants are best suited to each machine under the prevailing conditions.

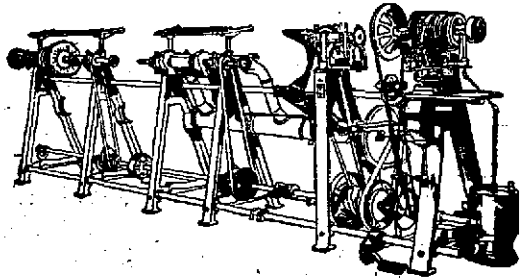

Their constant effort is to keep down manufacturing costs by specifying the particular oils and greases that will enable the machinery to deliver a maximum of service at a minimum of cost.

The work of the lubricating engineers is a part of the comprehensive service the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders.

This is another phase of the usefulness of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant, showing the constant effort being made by the Company to discharge its obligation in a complete and satisfactory manner.

We know the History of the Waist you wear

The waist you wear may be a modest garment of cotton — or again a camisole of cobwebby silk.

But be your waist a commoner or an aristocrat, we can give you its pedigree—can tell you the materials of which it is made, whence they came and the manner in which they are spun, woven and tailored to make the garment you wear.

We are able to do this because we make a special study of textiles and fabrics. We are enabled thus to give every variety of garment that comes to us exactly the treatment that will cleanse it best.

Is this not an improvement upon the methods of the old-time cleaners?

You may visit us and watch our workers while they sort the articles, so that each can be given the special cleansing it needs most.

Our cleansing is done by the latest improvements and may be rightly termed as "Odorlessly done."

Phone us today and have us call for your garments.

THRIFT MEANS FREEDOM.

Personal freedom, says the Elkhart Truth, consists of the right of every man to do what he pleases, to go where he pleases, and to be what he pleases so long as he does not interfere with the rights of his neighbors. This is the ideal of individual freedom, but how few of us reach it.

Most of us are weighed down by shackles of circumstance which hamper our every movement. Our progress toward our own ideals of liberty and happiness is painful and slow. Unmet obligations, the worry over what will become of us in our old age, the anxiety of seeing that our children are given a proper start in life, armed with the proper weapons for battling with the world—all these hamper our freedom.

We cannot be free. Free from the fear of want and all these material worries and anxieties which bind us down.

There is a royal road to freedom. It is thrift. Thrift will give us independence of all about us, freedom to go where we please, do what we please and be what we please.

Thrift is not miserliness. Thrift is sane saving, wise buying, the avoidance of waste and safe investment. This is the thrift which our people came to know during the trying days of the war, and which should become a permanent American habit. This is the thrift which the government is trying to foster through the continued sale of Thrift Stamps and War Savings stamps.

This is the thrift that will make millions free if they use and use their opportunity.

A Halt for Judge Lynch.

It is evident at the Capitol that an extreme effort will be made during the present session of Congress to pass laws which will make lynching so unpleasant that few will care to take part in such lawless outbreaks. One of the latest and most severe bills to be introduced on the subject is one which was framed by Representative Frederick W. Dallinger of Massachusetts. If the Dallinger bill becomes a law it will mean that the State or the officers of any state in which lynching takes place by a mob of three or more persons, and where the citizen who is lynched is not given protection, will be considered as denying to such citizen the equal protection of the laws and a violation of the peace of the United States. Also every person taking part in the mob by which a citizen is put to death shall, under the Dallinger bill, be deemed guilty of murder, subject to prosecution and if convicted subject to punishment under the laws of the state in which the lynching occurs. Any state in which lynchings occur would be subject to a forfeiture of $5,000 to $10,000, for the use of the dependent family or next of kin of the victim. Officers of the State who fail to prevent lynchings when they know they are liable to take place and prosecuting officers who fail to prosecute to judgment under the laws of the state all persons participating in such a mob, would be deemed guilty of an offense against the United States. Those found guilty would face a punishment of not more than five years imprisonment or a fine not exceeding $5,000 or both.

Why That Lame Back?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Rushville resident's example.

Mrs. Joseph S. Endicott, 125 S. Harrison St., says: "Sometimes I over-did at my housework or took cold and it was at just such times as that I had trouble with my back. My back would get so lame I was miserable and everything in the way of work wore me out. When stooping, sharp catches would seize me across the small of my back. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Pittman & Wilson's Drug Store, never failed to cure me of these attacks."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Endicott had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y. —(Adv.)

No Red Tape to it.

There is no red tape to be unravelled in accepting disabled soldiers, sailors and marines as employees. The Federal Board for Vocational Education is placing, without training being necessary, a large number of wounded soldiers. The employer does not obligate himself in any way by taking these men on his pay roll, except to give him a square deal. Agents of the Federal Board watch over the man placed, just to see that the work is suitable to his physical condition and to his capability as a workman. No reports from the employer are required. Courtesy, consideration and fairness to the man who did his share in the great struggle for humanity, is little enough to ask.

The district vocational officers have a big job—and the records of the 110,363 registrations, the 9181 men approved for courses and the 3478 men who have already entered training give evidence that the job is being well attended to.

PETROGRAD IS IN A HORRID SHAPE

City That Was Once Gay is Now a Desolate Place and Like a Prison in Itself

PEOPLE ARE STARVING

Moscow is More Normal—Food and Supplies are Not as Scarce as in Petrograd.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, July 7.—Petrograd is but the ghost of a city that was formerly as gay as money and people could make it. Petrograd is a prison in itself, under the tightest state of siege that a trembling regime can devise to prevent uprisings.

Petrograd's wide streets are almost deserted. The days are almost as barren as the long twilight evenings, which last until midnight now. No one is allowed on the streets after eleven in the evening. Every house must have one of its occupants outside its gate on guard at all hours—to guard what nobody knows, but those are orders from the military commander.

Stores are closed and buying is done entirely through secret channels. The beautiful buildings are inhabited by bolshevik officials. Hotels are dark and dirty, and are no longer public hostilities. They are the "hang-outs" of the commissaires.

There probably is not a sadder city in the world than the once wonderful Petrograd. The place is under the spell of apprehension of either bolshevik terror or enemy invasion. Most of the people hope for the latter, since it would mean food.

Most of Petrograd is starving. It is estimated that seven or eight hundred people die daily through hunger or privation. Disease is rampant. Medical supplies are not to be found.

Food is sold in insufficient quantities at the co-operatives, but nobody can live on it. The soup kitchens serve such as they have, but substances that none but the ravenous can mouth.

The position of foreigners is pitiful. They are mostly old people or refugees, waiting for the chance to escape. They have nothing, and without enormous funds one cannot live. With limitless funds one can eat fairly well, buying on the sly.

Confiscations continue. Supposedly they are official. The same old terrorist methods prevail. A typical case was cited by the Polish woman. This woman lived alone with her aged mother in an apartment. One night about midnight half a dozen sailors appeared battering down the door, demanding to search for weapons. Rudely and destructively they bullied the women and stayed until four in the morning.

They broke open every trunk and box and stole all money they could find. This they did in violation of the regulations for protection of foreigners. Trunks left by friends of the family were broken open with axes.

Next day the victims protested to their diplomatic representatives. They were assured they would get their funds and papers back. They did but with fifty thousand rubles gone. This was the third time this house had been searched for confiscations.

Disease rages in Petrograd, worse than any other region in Russia. Typhus is especially bad. It is so serious that the Finns pit everyone who escapes from Russia into quarantine. In none of the Russian cities are there means of combating disease now. The Danish Red Cross is the only organization allowed to conduct relief work, and it operates under the greatest of difficulties.

Moscow is more normal and is less tragic than Petrograd. It is better supplied with food, and prices are half as high. Petrograd is in danger of being isolated anytime by an advance from Estonia. The bolsheviks are panicky and are prepared to evacuate hastily if necessary. There are almost entirely no foreigners in Petrograd, and the workmen mobilized

Our Daily Laugh

New and Bright Yarns That Will Tickle You and Will be Relished by Your Friends When You Repeat Them.

One of George Creel's official movies, showing a batch of Scotch killers going viciously over the top, and photographed about seventy miles back of the firing line, incurred considerable of a rumpus in a movie house between a Scotchman and an Irishman. The Scot elated at the charge of the heather-jumpers, nudged the Irishman in the ribs and said:

"Mon, 'tis proof ye want? Look it! Who is the bravest race of men? Scots! See 'em top the trench, mon. Where be the Irish?"

"The Irish? If you could see further ye'd find the Irish away up at the front holdin' the Dooch while the Kilties is being photographed."

A prize of one dollar will be awarded for all funny stories which are accepted for this column. They should be brief and to the point.

Women are quite well dressed, many of them even stunningly gowned. In answer to your query, they tell you they are wearing their best left-over gowns. Even evening dresses are worn on the streets or at work, since people can get no new working clothes. The men are mostly shabby, and, in addition, dirty.

Crime has greatly decreased, according to the bolsheviks. This is probably due to the extremely harsh penalties. Practically all of the punishments are for political crimes. Stealing is more or less legalized for privileged bolsheviks under the confiscation system. Ordinary mortals are punished for stealing even food.

There are remarkably few beggars in Moscow and Petrograd, though more in the latter than in the former. Those who formerly begged are now sent to detention homes established, and are allowed limited rations. Begging is forbidden. In the smaller cities there has not been such radical reform socially. Life is more normal. Dvinsk, for example, is simply closed up, but not reformed. Stores are boarded up, as in the larger cities, but business thrives on the quiet.

One of the unfair features of the new system is that the fine hotels and houses formerly belonging to the bourgeoisie are confiscated and are rapidly decaying. They are inhabited almost entirely by the government officials—commissaires. No workmen live in them nor are workmen's homes bettered. Russian cities have simply fallen under the tyranny of a new privileged class, the bolsheviks.

What the Franklin Doesn't Need

The kind of service an owner gets from his motor car is visualized by the contents of his garage. Anti-freeze mixtures, scale removers, leak fixers, apparatus of one kind or another, advertise the anxieties that are always with the driver of a water-cooled car—impediments to the full enjoyment of care-free motoring.

With the elimination of all water and delicate water-cooling parts, the air-cooled FRANKLIN CAR also eliminates the many water-cooling troubles. And the knowledge that the car is always ready to run without coddling and without a lot of detailed attention, gives a conception of satisfaction that is new to anyone but a Franklin owner.

SHOE REPAIRING We have to smile

When people come here with old shoes which they doubtfully leave to our tender mercies and depart.
We have to smile again
when they come back and see how our shoe repairing has transformed their old shoes practically into new footwear. They never doubt again. Neither will you if you test our skill with some of your worn shoes.

MISS COLUMBIA Celebrates the Fourth

Surely, in all our history she and we have never had better reason to celebrate.

We're going to make this historic Fourth a day we'll long remember. And Columbia Grafonolas and Records are ready to play their patriotic part in the big celebration.

On Columbia Records you'll find all the music of victory—the glorious songs and marches that played our boys into action over there, the national anthems of our Allies, American patriotic airs from Revolutionary days to date. The Columbia Grafonola plays this inspiring music with the snap and dash of the greatest military bands. Call at Boxley's Piano Store, the Columbia Record Shop. We will play you the latest selections on the newest Grafonolas. Then you can make your own selection and celebrate the greatest Fourth of July in our history with appropriate patriotic music.

TO MAKE A GOOD RECORD GREAT
PLAY IT ON THE COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned commissioner appointed in and for the Rush Circuit Court wherein John Wikoff et al. are plaintiffs and Mary Nixon et al. are defendants for the partition of certain real estate therein, do hereby order that the real estate therein be sold to satisfy said cause, I will as such commissioner, on

at one o'clock p. m. on said day, offer at private sale on the farm located 3 miles northwest of Ft. Palmouth and 4 miles southeast of Raleigh and 4 miles northeast of Glines Station, the following described real estate in Washington township, Rush county, to-wit:

One hundred acres of uniform width on the entire east side of the southeast quarter of section 20, township 15 north of range 1 east, except a strip of land of uniform width off the entire east side thereof containing fifty-three acres, leaving in the tract described forty-seven acres, beginning at the northeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 30, township 15, range 11 and running thence west 30 rods and 12 links to a stone, thence in a southerly direction 21 rods and 8 links to a stone, thence east 30 rods to a stone on the half section line, thence north 51 rods and 7 links to the place of beginning, containing 9 acres and 100 rods.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash on day of sale; one-third in six months, and one-third in nine months, purchaser giving his notes for deferred payment, drawing six per cent interest from date of sale, secured by a mortgage on said real estate, privilege given to pay all cash. The wheat on said land is reserved, but one-half of the growing corn on the 9 acres last described. Possession of said farm given on September 1st, 1919, except the 9 acres and possession given of that March 1, 1920. This farm is well improved, good house barn and outbuildings, good water and on rural mail route, near to school and all under cultivation; good rich land. This farm is the homestead of the late Arthur Wikoff, deceased, and is being sold in partition by his heirs and the same could not be divided. Come and see the land and buy a good home of your own.

DANIEL B. NEWKIRK, Commissioner.

Young & Young, Attorneys.

Webb Cullen of Hamilton Arrives From Overseas and Dies in Hotel

HAD OFTEN VISITED HERE

He and Companion Land in New York City and He is Found Dead in Bed

Webb Cullen, late of Hamilton, O., who was a frequent visitor in this city and related here extensively, was found dead in bed in a New York hotel last Friday, having just landed from overseas service, where he was a lieutenant attached to a signal corps unit.

Mr. Cullen was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Cullen, who recently moved from Hamilton to New York City. He was 31 years old and possessed a fine physique and a towering height and was always noticed for these traits, while visiting in this city. He and his family were often guests here of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Sexton and other relatives, and his wife and child reside now in Hamilton.

The sad part of the affair was that he had just arrived from overseas and was on his way to see his parents in New York City, before going on to Hamilton. Following is an extract from a Hamilton paper which explains the manner of his death.

"Few real details of the death of Lieut. Cullen had been received at Hamilton. He arrived in New York from overseas, late Friday, so late in fact that he could not go to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Cullen for the night. However, he promptly called his father telling him of his safe arrival and stating that he was very tired and would go to a hotel for the night and see his father on Saturday morning.

Lieut. Cullen, accompanied by a boon companion, went to a hotel where they registered and retired. On Saturday morning when Lieut. Cullen's companion awoke he was shocked to find his associate dead. He at once notified Lieut. Cullen's father. The remains at once were taken in charge by funeral directors and arrangements made to send them to Hamilton for interment in Greenwood. Then it was that the sad message to the waiting wife in Hamilton was put upon the wires and brought to her the news that turned her joy into grief and told her that the devoted husband had been taken from her when almost again within her grasp."

RED SOX WIN, 11 TO 1

The Arlington Red Sox continued with their winning streak by defeating the Abbott Trojans of Indianapolis yesterday afternoon, before a large crowd of baseball fans, the score being 11 to 1. Many Rushville fans were on hand and the Red Sox are continuing to draw big crowds.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime.

Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Tiredness, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abated nerves. People with plenty of red blood, energetic and strong healthy nerves, have no desire to shirk work and have an abiding faith in themselves.

There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (victim of an excess of any kind) who does not feel that a very few weeks and he will be as good as new.

To become stronger and ambitious to do that which is not drudgery, to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance, to be not only a man but a man new as a person, you must take Serravallo's Tonic every day for several days and take Serravallo's Tonic.

Take one after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is used. In this special notice to nervous people we tell you that any claim made in this special notice is untrue unless you have tried Serravallo's Tonic and found it to be the only tonic that will give you the strength and endurance you need. You will find Serravallo's Tonic the only tonic that will give you the strength and endurance you need. You will find Serravallo's Tonic the only tonic that will give you the strength and endurance you need.

PRINCE OF WALES IS VERY POPULAR

Escape From the Frigid Atmosphere of The Court Developed His Character Wonderfully

IS A MOST CAPABLE SAILOR

Another Proof of Popularity is That the Prince Has Been Accepted as Fashion Leader

By PERCY M. SARR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, (By Mail)—The Prince of Wales is celebrating his 25th birthday by starting housekeeping on his own, free from the restraint of Buckingham Palace, where he has had to govern his comings and goings by the etiquette of court and the convenience of his royal parents. York House, St. James's, is the Prince's new home, and the alterations and redecoration being practically completed he is busily engaged in moving in.

Whatever the war has done for most royal families, it has firmly established the House of Windsor on the throne of England, at least, as far as the present heir to the throne is concerned. The stranger does not need to probe public opinion very deeply to find that there is a sincere popular and personal regard for the Prince of Wales, who has already inherited most of the national affection for his grandfather, the late King Edward. King Edward's hold on public affection, engendered after a most unpopular period of "wild cat sowing," was due to his very human failings and virtues, but his grandson, after a colorless start, due possibly to the fact that he advertised no special virtues, has attained the same goal by proving himself a very human young man.

Prior to the war he was always regarded as being too much impressed with the responsibilities of his future position, and likely to develop into a colorless personality. In public he was solemn and shy, and was suspected of being too "mother-ridden."

Then came the war, with the rush of young men to the front. The Prince showed himself a spirited youngster by insisting on being allowed to take his chance with the youths of his own age. Revolutionary opponents of the monarchical system declared that this was "good advertising," but the soldiers who encountered him in France and Italy say that if it was merely advertising the monarchy, it was a risky job the way the Prince did it. Far from sitting in the shelter of G. H. Q. or in the comparative safety of the S. O. S. he took his turn in the front line and more than once narrowly escaped the further advertisement of a "Blighty" (B. E. F.) for wound.)

This welcome escape from the frigid atmosphere of the Court developed his character in a manner which would have been quite impossible under any other conditions. And the development was all for the good. His preternatural solemnity fell from him like a cloak, and the open air life, with its mixture of danger, freedom and democratic camaraderie, disclosed a most essentially human personality. Command of men has given him self-confidence and an intimate knowledge of men, matters and social conditions.

The Prince is a most capable sailor, fully worthy of his naval rank of lieutenant, and his promotion to the army rank of colonel on the staff was more than a complimentary step due to royal favor, for Sir Douglas Haig's staff swear there is no more competent staff officer than the heir to the British throne.

He is also a capable aviator, although his brother Prince Albert aims at the title of "flying prince" and is in the Royal Air Force. He has lately developed a keen interest in the housing question, and as a considerable landlord he has every opportunity of obtaining first-hand information. Which opportunities he has taken, considerably to the chagrin and surprise of the estate agents. The Prince, as Duke of Cornwall, owns a large portion of the most congested districts of south London, and he has made a number of surprise visits to investigate living conditions.

Another proof of his popularity is that the Prince has been accepted as fashion leader, and the "nits" are assiduously imitating his style of dress, and studying his taste in socks, ties, shoes and hats.

Amusements

Fifth Episode at Mystic

Constantly increasing audiences are finding out that "The Red Glove"—the Marie Walecamp serial which is showing weekly at the Mystic theatre, is far and away the most entertaining serial on the market. The fifth episode will be shown today and involves the adventures of Billie, the heroine, who has climbed into the Hidden Valley by means of a rope.

A Detective Story.

Who, that loves a detective story, is unfamiliar with that famous character created by Carolyn Wells, the American Sherlock Holmes, the hero of many of her novels—Stone. He will be seen in the flesh in "Vicky Van," Paramount screen version of one of Miss Wells' latest novels, in which beautiful Ethel Clayton is the star, and which will be shown at the Princess tonight.

Ethel Clayton will be seen in the name part, a sort of dual role. She is in reality Ruth Schuyler, wife of a wealthy man old enough to be her father. With a legacy of her own, to escape the hateful monotony of her married life, she assumes a different name, "Victoria Van Allen," and disguising herself, holds weekly bohemian parties in an adjoining house she has purchased. Her husband discovers the game and abuses her. He is later found dead—there enters the mystery and the detective who solves the problem from the young widow from suspicion. "Vicky Van" is a modern detective story with all the attendant thrills of a narrative of that type.

BARELY ESCAPE DROWNING

Miss Lillian Martin and Ralph Ennis Rescued.

While on a picnic outing the Fourth of July, Miss Lillian Martin and Ralph Ennis of Blue Ridge narrowly escaped drowning. Miss Martin was in the creek, one mile south of Blue Ridge, and Ennis attempted to rescue her.

The Misses Martin, Messrs. Neeb, Ennis and Inlow were bathing in Cons creek and Miss Martin stepped in deep water. Ennis was near her at the time and attempted to rescue her. She went down three times and he went down twice in his attempt at rescue. The two were saved by Neeb and Inlow.

It will appeal to all who like a romance with a touch of mystery and much suspense. Miss Clayton is ably supported by a fine cast and the direction by Robert G. Vignola, is said to be highly artistic. Tomorrow night Dorothy Dalton will be shown in "The Lady of Red Butte," a story of the west.

PARIS—There were 19,650 influenza victims in Paris between October and February, according to official statistics.
